

INNER HORIZONS OF LIGHT

ALL are welcome.

Observe well, surely, but first - PAUSE.

Feel the silence in your eyes.

Stand simply before the landscape of your Self.

Soften your Heart.

Then Roam.

Every day, out of its own free will, the only home we have ever known carries us with cosmic purpose out of the darkness and back into the light. Spinning around our solitary Sun we rise and fall, connected, in spirit, as one.

The REVELATION of Time ushers in the new day.

TIME - The Eternal Flame in the cremation grounds of VARANASI renders bodies to ash.

TIME - GRACE unfolds in the inner sanctum of CHIDAMBARAM (I and II) through daily ritual.

TIME - A girl comes to terms with her past and experiences something beautiful, right now (HER OWN INDEPENDENT EXISTENCE).

At the surface, time is unstoppable. Yet, inside, a feeling beckons.

Inside, inner horizons dance forever with extraordinary light. Inside, time stands still. These pieces emanate from that place, holding out for beauty, even in this brutal world.

May they be windows into the preciousness of Time.

May they invite dreams of something more.
